

The Libyan Revolution

List of chapters in Contents

Preface	ix
Part One
The End of the Old Regime
1. Pro-Western Tripoli	3
2. The Decadence of a Dying Order	21
Part Two
The Revolution and its Aims
3. The 1969 Coup	43
4. Gaddafi's Anti-Western Measures: Growing Extremism	59
Part Three
The Achievements of the Revolution
5. Growing Terror and Isolation: 1971–1980	93
6. Terrorism and Nuclear Weapons, 1981–2001	111
7. Returning to the International Fold and Disarmament, 2002–2009	127
Timeline	142
Appendix
Portrait of Western Libya
Catching the Libyan Atmosphere and Western Links	155
Tripoli Castle: Two Caramanlis	157
Suk Al-Jum'a: Camels and Volkswagen Nomads	160
Our Lady of Garian and the Troglodyte Wife	165
Tripoli's Old City: The Old British Consulate and the Baker	171
Leptis: Septimius Severus and the Medallioned Groom	176
Sabratha: Flavius Tullus and the Mosaic-Maker	183
Two Amphitheatres: Beasts and a Thracian Gladiator	191
Tripoli's Old City: A Tarbooshed Merchant, a Sandalled Plague-Bearer	200
New Tripoli: A Ghaffir with Italian Medals, 45s in an Oilman's Car	206
Miss Tully's Story of Yusef Caramanli	211
The Shar'a Shatt Fort: Battleships and a Rope Sling	219
The Intrepid : Decatur's Fireship, a Seaman with a Knotted Scarf	223
Djerba: Lotus and Skewered Lamb	228
Viper's Valley: A Legend which Came True? The James Halifax Story	232
Casino: Wheel and a Rippling Jaw	237
Focus on the Amphitheatres of Leptis and Sabratha:
The Whereabouts of the Beast-Pens and the Gladiator Prison	240
Tripoli: Old and New under a Blue Sky	244
London: Merrie Dandies and a Blind Piper	247
Palestine: The Arab Case in Britain	251
London: Traditional, Modern, Underground, Pop, the Cultural Scene	256
Libyan-British Relations	261
Provincial France: Grey Blinds, Baroque Statues, Frenchness	268

Libyans Show Solidarity with the Revolutionary Command Council	273
Old Regimes	275
Libya's Young Puritans	279
Libya under its Colonel from the Desert	283
Dates of Articles	287
Notes and References to Sources	289
Bibliography	295